

Please do not weaken the New Jersey Do Not Call law. If anything, add political solicitations to those eligible for blocking. If I lose my common sense and want to give my money to some political hack, I will seek said party out myself.

Should you have a problem with the different standards, the logical solution would be to toughen up the federal regulation.